

Tigrarian Community Association in Victoria Inc. (TCAV) Partnership Guidelines

1. Introduction

The Tigrarian Community Association in Victoria (TCAV) acknowledges the value of partnerships in fostering community growth and development. These partnership guidelines aim to outline TCAV's approach to collaboration with external organizations, ensuring mutually beneficial and sustainable relationships.

2. Objectives of Partnerships

- ◆ Foster collaborations that align with TCAV's mission and values.
- ◆ Enhance community engagement and inclusivity through strategic partnerships.
- ◆ Facilitate resource sharing, knowledge exchange, and collective impact initiatives.
- ◆ Support initiatives and endeavours that contribute to TCAV's mission success and the holistic well-being of the Tigrarian community across social, cultural, and economic well-being.

3. Partnership Criteria

TCAV considers partnerships based on the following 5 criteria:

- ◆ Alignment with TCAV's mission, values, and strategic priorities.
- ◆ Potential for mutual benefit and shared goals.
- ◆ Commitment to integrity, inclusivity, diversity, accountability and transparency.
- ◆ Clarity on roles, responsibilities, and expected outcomes.
- ◆ Compliance with ethical standards and legal regulations.

4. Partnership Process

Initial Contact: Organizations interested in partnering with TCAV can reach out through formal correspondence or designated contact channels. – tigrayvic@gmail.com

Assessment: TCAV evaluates proposed partnerships based on alignment with criteria and potential impact.

Negotiation: Discussions take place to define goals, roles, resource commitments, and anticipated outcomes.

Formalization: Upon agreement, a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) or Agreement outlines the terms, responsibilities, and mechanisms for collaboration.

Implementation: Partnerships commence as outlined in the MoU, with periodic evaluations and adjustments as necessary.

5. Partnership Expectations

Clear Communication: Regular and transparent communication among partners to ensure alignment and effective collaboration.

Resource Sharing: Commitment to equitable sharing of resources, expertise, and responsibilities.

Evaluation: Regular reviews and assessments to measure progress and address challenges.

Sustainability: Commitment to long-term sustainability and impact in line with agreed objectives.

Ethical Conduct: Adherence to ethical standards, integrity, and respect for diverse perspectives.

6. Conclusion

TCAV values strategic partnerships as a catalyst for community growth and development. These guidelines serve as a framework for fostering meaningful, impactful, and sustainable collaborations in line with our community's best interests.